WORLD CHORAL CONDUCTING NETWORK

OFFICIALLY REGISTERED

On January 9, Klaus Levermann, the Network Coordinator of WCCN, signed the required documents at the designated notary's office to obtain the state and legally recognized status for the network.

All these organizational steps now provide a solid foundation for our future substantial work.

YOUR KNOWLEDGE AND OFFERINGS

Would you like to share and contribute knowledge and offerings? Contact us! WCCN offers an active participation chance by setting up Opportunity Street - for you and others. For questions or offers, please reach out to: caplin@wccn.online

MANY TALKS

Already in 2024, WCCN has been engaged in discussions with associations and institutions to express appreciation and respect for the work of others and to signal a commitment to promoting TOGETHERNESS.

Only through togetherness we can advance the core goals of WCCN, foster innovation and promote the global choral community. We are dedicated to this cause and delighted with the positive feedback we have received.

*"It is not the words of the song that make the power of the prayer. It is the way it is sung that reaches the ear of life. A good song grows and grows with the singing."
(Norman H. Russell, Cherokee)*
